HAAS IS DISCHARGED

The Law of Maryland, Judge Holt Declares, is Not Operative in New York. (By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, May 9,-Moses Haas, whb was arrested in this city in connection with the cotton report 'leak' in the Department of Agriculture, Washington, in which former Statistican E. S. Holmes, day by Judge Holt, of the United States Court.

Haas was discharged some time ago by United States Commissioner Ridgway, but was rearrested at the request of the Washington authorities. Haas and Peekham were charged with conspiracy to induce Holmes to commit the crime of misconduct in office, in giving them advance information on cotton crop report, by which it is alleged, they profited to the extent of several thousand dollars.

It was argued in helatf of Haas that the crime of "misconduct of office" is recognized only under the common law of Maryland, which still applies to the District of Columbia, and that it did not constitute an offense of which a United States court could take cognizance, Judge Holt upheld this view of the matter. He said the common haw of Maryland could not obtain in the State of New York where Haas was indicted and arraigned. Judge Holt further said that there was nothing to show that Assistant Statistician Holmes was bound to keep the cotton report secret, however, reprehensible his actions may have been morally.
